

Collection of Teresa Heinz

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

This October, the Library of Virginia will present To Be Sold: Virginia and the American Slave Trade, an exhibition exploring the state's role in the forced migration of enslaved persons to the Deep South in the first half of the 19th century.

We will hold two public forums in June to discuss the project and solicit your ideas and thoughts.

Thursday, June 19, 6:00–7:00 PM | Tuesday, June 24, 12:00–1:00 PM

- What would you like to learn about the interstate slave trade?
- How might this exhibition help make the past relevant to today?

Come to the Library of Virginia to help us make this exhibition and its related events the best that they can be. Contact us at education@lva.virginia.gov for more information.

LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA

800 E. Broad St. | Richmond, VA 23219
www.lva.virginia.gov | Limited free parking is available under the Library

UPCOMING EXHIBITION
AT THE LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA

TO BE SOLD

Virginia and the American Slave Trade

FALL 2014

To Be Sold: Virginia and the American Slave Trade is supported, in part, by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.