

Resume

Burchell (Burt) Fitzgerald Pinnock, AIA Baskervill
101 South 15th Street
Richmond, VA 23219

Burt Pinnock is a Principal with Baskervill and a founding member of Storefront for Community Design

Born 1965 in Tuskegee, Alabama
Bachelor of Architecture – Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
Licensed Architect – Commonwealth of Virginia
Member: 1708 Gallery Board of Directors 2000
Member: Richmond Renaissance Advisory Committee 2001
Panelist: Future possibilities of the WRVA Building in Church Hill, Richmond, Virginia – February 2002
Member: Commission of Architectural Review; City of Richmond 2001-2004
Member: Urban Design Committee; City of Richmond 2003
Adjunct Faculty: Virginia Commonwealth University – Dept. of Interior Design 2003
Panelist: Urban Practice and Policy Forum - Historic Preservation in 21st Century Richmond: What Questions Should We Be Asking?, University of Richmond – March 2004
Lecturer – National Organization of Minority Architects Convention, New York City, The International Symposium – November 2004
Lecturer – Architecture Exchange East, Richmond VA - Minority Report: Diversity in Architecture Today – November 2005
Member – GSA National Peer Review Program 2007 -
Lecturer – Virginia Commonwealth University – Department of Communications Objects and Methods Series – March 2006
Member – Venture Richmond Board of Directors 2008 -
Extensive travel in the United States, Italy, Switzerland and France, Germany, England and Japan

Professional Experience

Baskervill, Richmond, Virginia (2013 -)
BAM Architects LLC, Richmond, Virginia (1999 - 2013)
Baskervill & Son, Richmond, Virginia (1992 - 1999)
Santiago Calatrava, Paris, France (1990)
Bernegger Quaglia Architetti, Lugano Switzerland (1988 - 1990)
Il Laboratorio SNC, Rome, Italy (1988)

Hardy Holzman Pfeiffer and Associates, New York, New York (1985-1986)

Other Experience

United States Forest Service, Oregon and Washington (1984-1985)
Field Worker

Honors and Awards

City of Richmond Public Arts Commission "Main Street Station Plaza" Competition (with Chris Chase and Camden Whitehead) – selected finalist (2000)
Northern Virginia AIA Young Architects Award (1994)
Merit award for design of 30,000 SF medical office building
Rebuilding Pocahontas Island - Design Charrette (1994)
Two day charrette sponsored by The National Trust for Historic Preservation to aide in the rebuilding of historic Pocahontas Island (with David Lee AIA, Richard Dozier AIA, Terry Ammons AIA and the City of Petersburg, Virginia)
Eight Architects- exhibit (1993)
Organizer and participant in exhibit of typographic, photographic, and architectural works of eight architects and graphic designers from Richmond and Washington DC
Building Better Communities (with Terry Ammons) – Winner (1993)
Competition for the restructuring of an underdeveloped neighborhood in the Manchester area
National Peace Garden Competition (with Frank Lorino) - Selected Entry (1993)
Competition for design of a National Peace Garden on the Potomac River in Washington DC
Shinkenchiku Residential Design Competition - Honorable Mention (1988)
Annual international competition sponsored by Japanese publisher AIA Virginia Society Prize (at VPI&SU) – Commendation (1987)
Annual weekend competition for the three registered schools of architecture in Virginia
Masonry Design Competition (at VPI&SU) - First Prize (1986)
Annual design competition sponsored by the Brick Institute for academic projects using unit masonry