Dr. Martin L. King Will Speak In Newport News

PETERSBURG, Va. — The Virginia State Unit of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference will present Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in a Fund for Freedom Drive, June 28, at First Baptist Church, Newport News, Va. The Rev. F. J. Boddie, Jr., pastor of First Baptist Church and Peninsular vice-president of Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is coordinating the Freedom Rally.

Funds in this drive will be used to continue the Voter Registration Drive that is being sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference of Virginia. The Virginia State Unit has four employed personnel working in voter registration with a field secretary who is organizing citizens in the 18 counties and 3 cities of the 4th Congressional District.

THE SOUTHERN Christian Leadership Conference has also 491 committed soldiers in the non-violent army. Petersburg Unit of the Non-violent Army has launched invasion on every ward, every home years of age in the city of Petersburg, in an effort to double the Negro vote. This same manner of attack will be used all 18 counties and three cities of the 4th Congressional District.

More than 5,000 new registered voters across the state have been added to the registrar's books.
